Book: “A Tough Little Patch of History: ‘Gone With the Wind’ and the Politics of Memory” (reprint edition)
Author: Jennifer W. Dickey
Publisher: University of Arkansas Press
Release date: March 2014
Description: “A Tough Little Patch of History” (the phrase was coined by a journalist in 1996 to describe the Margaret Mitchell home after it was spared from destruction by fire) explores how “Gone with the Wind” has remained an important component of public memory in Atlanta through an analysis of museums and historic sites that focus on this famous work of fiction.

Book: “Gone With the Wind: 75 Years of the Great American Movie”
Author: Editors of LIFE Magazine
Publisher: LIFE
Release date: October 2014
Description: The editors of LIFE Magazine explore the hidden corners of the “Gone with the Wind” saga. The travails of getting the movie made in the 1930s were chronicled in the pages of LIFE (1,400 actresses interviewed before Vivien Leigh chosen; Selznick waited two years for Clark Gable to sign on to the project), as was the frenzy of its premiere. All of this coverage will be revisited in this lavish coffee-table edition, which also includes behind-the-scenes photography from the set, stunning pictures of the famed burning of Atlanta scene, as well as all of the fascinating, intimate photography from the making of the movie.
